

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP CONFERENCE

Supporting best practice across the new primary curriculum

A professional development day for primary teachers in Devon, Plymouth and Torbay

9.00am-4.00pm on Wednesday 20 May 2009

Conference Centre, Buckfast Abbey, Buckfastleigh, Devon

Keynote Speaker: Alan Dyer,

Associate Director, Centre for Sustainable Futures, University of Plymouth

Exploring opportunities offered by the Rose Review of the Primary Curriculum

Now that the Rose review of the primary curriculum has published its Interim Report, this day conference will provide an opportunity for colleagues in all primary schools to consider how challenging and engaging global citizenship learning and teaching activities can be handled, either through discrete subjects or meaningful cross-curricular studies.

The conference will include:

- workshops led by practising teachers, focusing on how global citizenship can be incorporated effectively across a range of subjects and cross-curricular studies
- Extensive exhibition and networking time
- Excellent lunch included in the conference price
- Relevant to all curriculum areas, and especially Geography, Citizenship, Education for Sustainable Development and PHSE.

This is the seventh annual conference organised by the Global Education Network, part of the Department for International Development's (DFID) Strategy for supporting Global Citizenship teaching in the South West.

Conference fee £75;
£50 for 2nd teacher
or NQTs
