

January

Teaching Assistants & HLTAs Interested in Global Citizenship
- Weds 13 Jan 9-12am

For schools

Second session in a series of three, focusing on Whole School Awards, including Fairtrade Schools Award. Fee payable.

Living Under Occupation: a Village on the Edge - Thur 14 Jan 1-2pm
Ecumenical Accompanier Sharen Green tells stories from Jayyous, a Palestinian community which has lost 75% of its land.

World at Lunch

Post-election Afghanistan: Issues and Challenges - Tues 19 Jan 7pm
PhD student Timor Sharan will show how complex political, ethnic and social relationships in Afghanistan affected the recent elections.

Gown meets Town

Song Exchange - Weds 20 Jan 7pm
An informal sharing of songs from different places. Come and sing or just listen.

Why I became a peaceful, unarmed, bodyguard in Colombia! - Tues 26 Jan 7-9pm
Louise Winstanley spent 2 years volunteering with Peace Brigades International in Colombia, and Dan Slee is volunteering from March.

ISA meeting - Weds 27 Jan 2pm

David Weatherly (Devon adviser) leads this session providing inspiration and direction to schools on the ISA process. NB. Location: Great Moor House, Sowton EX2 7NL.

For schools

February

Beyond Reach? 'Make Poverty History' comes alive - Weds 3 Feb 7pm

Global Book Club

Best-selling author John Madeley discusses his latest book: a novel bringing issues of poverty and development to a wider audience.

The Sun of Wisdom in the Tale - Thur 4 Feb 7pm
Storyteller David Heathfield and oud-player Fadi Alnaji take us on a caravan of Middle-Eastern tales through blinding sandstorms and delicately-perfumed gardens to reveal the vices and virtues that bind humans together. Tales and songs from the floor welcome. Fundraising event for the Global Centre.

Stand Up Two! - Tues 9 Feb all day
Join schools and DCC staff raising money for toilets and clean water to benefit Ugandan schoolgirls, following the 2009 success.

Shiatsu Mind-Body Works - Thur 11 Feb 1-2pm

World at Lunch

Experienced Shiatsu Practitioner Sandhya Dave will show how this simple body-work practice from Japan can be a powerful tool in maintaining health and well-being, while allowing you to live in a sustainable way. All ages and abilities welcome.

It Must Have Been Something He Ate: Food Additives, Hyperactivity and the Feingold Diet - Tues 23 Feb 7pm

Gown meets Town

Matthew Smith, Wellcome Trust Research Fellow, examines Dr Feingold's work on the relationship between additives and hyperactivity. Was Feingold actually right? Were his opponents politically motivated?

Fairtrade fortnight – Sat 22 Feb - Sun 7 Mar

Exciting events throughout Devon
<http://www.fairtradedevon.org.uk/>

Regular activities

World at Lunch Every Thursday 1-2pm

Bring your lunch and share a discussion of what's happening in the world with a friendly multi-cultural group.

Internet Access

Internet and word processing available for a small charge to members.

Local Group Meetings

These groups hold regular meetings at the Global Centre:

- Palestine Solidarity Campaign
- Exeter Ethiopia Group
- Transition Exeter
- Exeter Friends for Animals

Many thanks to Exeter Quakers for sponsoring this programme

*Winner of the Global Learning
Award for 2006*

Devon is now a Fairtrade County – we are proud to have led the campaign

March

Celebration of Fairtrade - Weds 3 Mar 7-9 pm
Drink fairtrade tea (and the odd glass of wine) with Erica Kyere the communications director of Ghanaian cocoa co-operative Kuapa Koko.

Global Education in Partnership

- Tues 9 Mar 10am-4pm
Free CPD workshop for all schools which have a partnership with a school outside Europe. Places limited – please register.

For schools

Song Exchange - Weds 10 Mar 7pm
An informal sharing of songs from different places. Come and sing or just listen.

Teaching Assistants & HLTAs Interested in Global Citizenship - Weds 17 Mar 9-12

For schools

Third session in a series of three, focusing on multi-cultural Britain.

Lá Fhéile Pádraig (St Patrick's Day)

- Thur 18 Mar 1-2pm
Will the real St. Patrick please stand up? A sideways glance at the original Green movement with Irish Cultural Champion James Ellis.

World at Lunch

Global Book Club - Weds 24 March 7-8.30pm
Book title tbc.

Global Book Club

The Royal Navy and British National Identity - Thur 25 Mar 7pm
Why don't the British care about their Navy anymore? Dr Duncan Redford examines how our identity has affected how we view the Navy.

Gown meets Town

Unless noted otherwise these events are free and open to the public.

The Global Centre is a charity, and relies on donations to run these events. Please give generously and consider becoming a member or making a regular donation.

Opening hours:
Mondays to Thursdays 10am-5pm