

Daphrose

Farmer from the Twongerekawa Coko Co-operative

Daphrose has nine children; three are married, three are in secondary school and the younger three in primary school. She has 896 coffee trees and with her income from Fairtrade coffee she is able to pay school fees, buy clothes, food and mulching materials, have health insurance and save money in the local saving group. She is also able to make repairs to her house when needed.

