

Climate Crisis – Climate Justice

.Good Cop, bad Cop: what the Cop28 agreement says and what it means. Some say the deal is historic, others that it is weak. We look closely at the text for the truth of the matter. Read more ...

African countries at COP28: several big wins and a united voice. Read more ...

COP28: Climate mums make themselves heard in halls of power. With the COP28 climate talks drawing to a close, three mothers from different continents tell the BBC how their love for their children has motivated them to take their arguments to the people in power. Read more ...

'Magical' tech innovations a distraction from real solutions, climate experts warn. Overemphasis on innovation and carbon removal risks distracting from main goal of stopping use of fossil fuels, say scientists. Read more ...

Other News

Rastafarian soldier wins racism case against Army. One of the British Army's first Rastafarian guardsmen has won a claim of race discrimination and harassment against the Ministry of Defence. Read more ...

Finding a fix: Nigerian women lead drive to upcycle plastics. In Nigeria, where plastic pollution is still a huge problem, there is a rise of women-led schemes focused on fixes. Read more ...

Young Kenyans begin boycott of Israeli brands as Gaza war goes on. In Nairobi, advocacy efforts are on the rise in solidarity with Palestine as the war in Gaza continues. Read more ...

Venezuela and Guyana agree not to use force in Essequibo dispute. Leaders hold tense talks after Venezuela organised referendum to claim oil-rich territory that makes up two-thirds of Guyana. Read more ...

Local News ...

COP28 climate conference gives two prizes to Plymouth green energy scheme. The project has been recognised at the world's biggest climate conference. Read more ...

Exeter experts give verdict on COP28 deal. The deal contains the first global agreement on "transitioning" away from fossil fuels – but this was watered down from a "phase out". Read more ...

Focus on people to boost Africa's climate resilience. Investments in Africa's infrastructure can make people and communities far more resilient to the threats posed by climate change, a new report says. Read more ...

Topics discussed at Thursday's World at Lunch

'The Rise in U.S. Traffic Deaths. What's behind America's unique problem with vehicle crashes?

Read more ...

Paris mayor plans to triple SUV parking tariffs to cut air pollution. 'It's a form of social justice,' says Anne Hidalgo of move to target richest drivers to tackle climate breakdown. Read more ...

These are some Christmas traditions around the world, from fistfights to KFC. Read more ...

Rice, beans and best friends: A Nigerian embrace for Cameroonian refugees. In the Nigerian town of Ogoja, a typical day in the life of 15-year-old best friends Rebecca from Nigeria and Blessing, a Cameroonian refugee. Read more ...

Watch and listen ...

Panorama: The Water Pollution Cover-Up. Reporter Joe Crowley reveals how water companies can cover up pollution incidents and how the Environment Agency fails to stop them. Watch ...

Websites...

Friends of the River Exe: Passionate about the River Exe?

<https://friendsoftheriverexe.org/take-action/>

Project Seagrass: Our mission is to lead societal change to enable the recognition, recovery and resilience of seagrass ecosystems globally.

<https://www.projectseagrass.org/>

Campaign Updates ...

Greenpeace: Year in Pictures 2023 – our biggest campaigns captured on camera. Read more ...