

DDE Newsletter No. 214

Climate Crisis – Climate Justice

Fossil fuel use reaches global record despite clean energy growth. Report finds developing countries are increasing reliance on coal, gas and oil as overall demand for energy rises. Read more ...

New world record set for residential solar panel. Oxford PV pioneering the commercialisation of next-generation cells using 'miracle material' perovskite. Read more ...

Can mirrors help fight the threat of extreme heat? Read more ...

Ending native forest logging would help Australia's climate goals much more than planting trees. Read more ...

Other News

Equiano unveiled - A ceremony at the American Church in Goodge Street, London. Read more ...

Susannah's grandad ran Bengal when famine killed millions. Her grandfather was the governor of Bengal, in British India, during the run-up and height of the 1943 famine ... Read more ...

Why 800 people fled a sun-kissed Mediterranean village ... His village, Alma al-Shaab, lies in southern Lebanon just over a kilometre from the Israeli border. Read more ...

Documentary tells stories of Windrush pioneers. The film, made by Taste of Africa Northeast and its creative youth leadership programme, features interviews with first and second generation Windrush pioneers. Read more ...

Watch and listen ...

Channel 4: Inside Myanmar resistance: Rebel doctors and mine hunters. Watch ...
... warning, this report contains distressing pictures right from the start.

Local News ...

Celebrating Windrush: A Vibrant Tribute at Exeter Library. Read more ...

Major new Exeter art exhibition shows struggles faced by neurodivergent young people. Read more ...

Online tool helps voters match with their ideal political party. Read more ...

Every Bite Counts - the Devon Food Partnership is inviting you to share your pledge to make a small change to eat more local food. Read more ...

Topics discussed at Thursday's World at Lunch

The faces behind the numbers. 120 million people, or one in 69 individuals worldwide, is displaced.

Read more ...

'We Have to Live Now': Stories of a Home Out of Reach. Read more ...

One of the world's oldest penguins, 30, has chick with her boy toy, 4 — and they are 'devoted to each other' Read more ...

Thailand passes historic bill recognising marriage equality. Country on track to become third in Asia — after Taiwan and Nepal — to legalise same-sex marriage. Read more ...

Exeter's LTN scheme is sensationally scrapped. Read more ...

Campaign Updates:

Debt Justice: Debt payments by countries most vulnerable to climate crisis soar ... level at highest in more than 30 years, say campaigners, who want 'rapid and effective' relief scheme. Read more ...

Biofuelwatch: Restore Nature March Saturday 22nd June in London. Read more ...

Practical Action: Sudan - A year of work in the shadow of war, a photo journal. Read more ...

Practical Action: Light & Power for Refugees in Burkina Faso. How access to clean, affordable and reliable energy has transformed the life of over 10,000 refugees from Goudoubo camp in Burkina Faso.

Read more ...